

Conditions for Release, Rules and Restrictions Applying to the

NUPEC PWR Sub-channel and Bundle Tests Experimental Data and Information

The data and other experimental information are released under the following conditions:

- The data and information remain the property of the Nuclear Regulation Authority (NRA).
- Recipients agree to specify the purposes of use of the benchmark data and information and agree to use them exclusively for the declared purposes.
- Recipients agree not to make copies of the information and not to further distribute or sell it to third parties.
- Transfer of the information to a user in a given establishment confers only the right to use the information within that organisation for the declared purpose.
- Recipients agree to provide feedback on deficiencies or errors they may find in the data.
- Data and their documentation are provided on the understanding that whenever the use of these obtained through the NEA, or locally modified versions of them, results in a publication (a journal, conference proceedings, laboratory report, book etc.), the data and their author or laboratory of origin shall be acknowledged in the publication

DISCLAIMER

Neither the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development nor NRA, nor any person acting on behalf of any of these organisations assume any liability with respect to the use of, or for damage resulting from the use of the data and information released.
