

Strål
säkerhets
myndigheten

Swedish Radiation Safety Authority

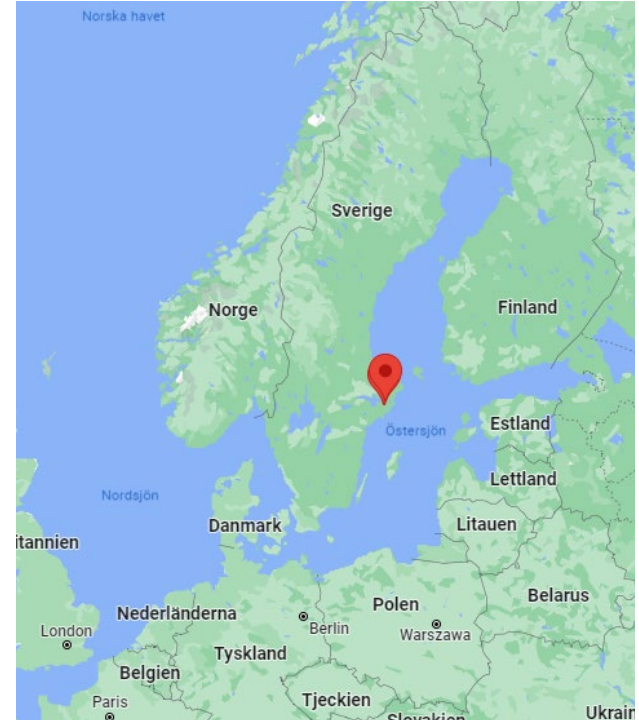

EGAR Workshop

26th-28th September

Location

- Location: Solna
 - located just north of Stockholm City Centre.

How to get to Solna

- From Arlanda Airport:

- Arlanda express to Stockholm C
 - Takes ~20 min, ~30 € departs every 15 min. Ticket can be bought on-line (<https://www.arlandaexpress.com/>) or at the self-service machines.

- From Arlanda Airport:

- Taxi to Solna Strandväg 96, Solna.
 - Takes ~40-70 min, ~150 €

- From Stockholm C:

- Subway blue line (T10) towards Hjulsta. Get off at station Solna strand
 - Takes ca 10 min, departs at every 10. Ticket can be bought scanning creditcard or at manned counters. ~5 €. One way ticket valid for 75 min.

How to get to the venue

- Venue: Swedish Radiation Safety Authority (Strålsäkerhetsmyndigheten, SSM).
 - Visiting address: Solna Strandväg 96, Solna
 - Leave subway in the direction of travel. On street level, turn to the left and walk about 100 m. At the crossing, you can see SSM's Office slightly on the left (see the picture above). SSM's Office is a red brick building that can be reached by descending an outdoor flight of steps. In front of the building, a flag and a sign with SSM's logotype should also be visible. Proceed to the revolving doors and enter the building.

Optional visit to the Swedish National Archives

- The Swedish National Archives grew out of the various archives set up by central government in Stockholm over the centuries. The Swedish National Archives is one of the country's oldest public authorities. With roots in the Middle Ages, the first archive was established in 1618 to hold government and court records, and was placed under the control of the Royal Chancery.

Riksarkivet 1618 - 2018.

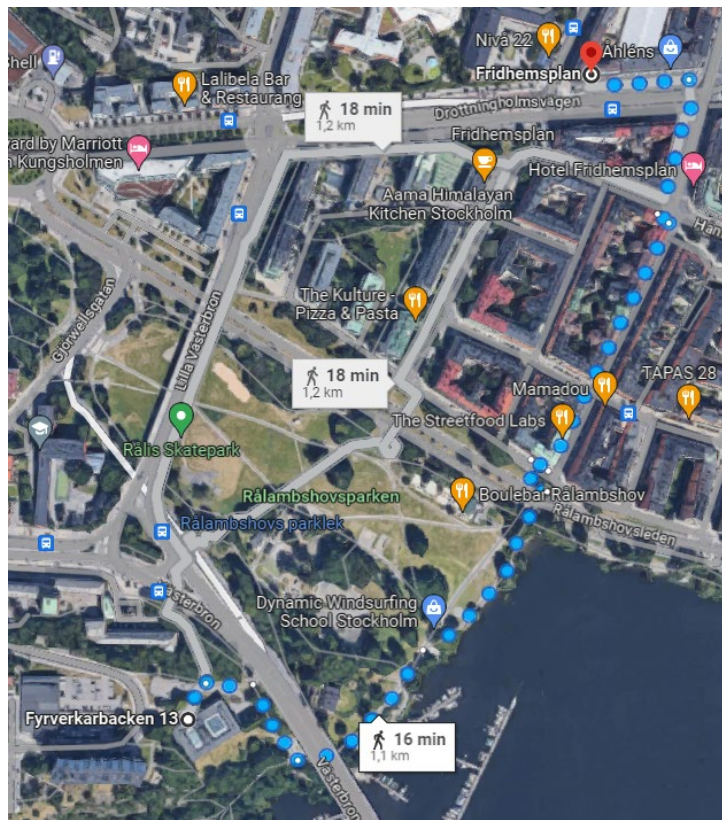

How to get to the Swedish National Archives

- From Stockholm C:
 - Subway blue and green line (T10, 11, 17, 18, 29) towards Hjulsta, Akalla, Hässelby Strand, Åkeshov or Alvik. Get off at station Fridhemsplan.

How to get to the Swedish National Archives

- From Fridhemsplan:
 - 15 min walk to Fyrverkarbacken 13, 112 60 Stockholm

Strål
säkerhets
myndigheten

Swedish Radiation Safety Authority

Tack för oss!

